

Company Profile: The Funding Corporation is a part of the Farm Credit System, a network of cooperative lending institutions providing credit to qualified borrowers in the agricultural industry and rural America. Our mission is to support and help US agriculture. More information about the Funding Corporation is available at www.farmcreditfunding.com.

Position: 2022 Summer Intern

Description: The Federal Farm Credit Banks Funding Corporation located in Jersey City, New Jersey is offering a comprehensive summer internship. This position will offer an excellent learning environment for interns looking to gain exposure to web development and Java programming. The internship will assist students in garnering a better understanding of the Farm Credit System and the debt issuance process.

Requirements/Demonstrated Qualifications

Applicants must possess:

- Proficient in Java with at least two semesters of Java Programming that required at least one extensive web application project and a 4.0 GPA in these courses.
- Proficient in SQL with at least on semester of Database Administration.
- Overall GPA of 3.5 or higher with
- Strong analytic skills
- Problem solving skills including: comprehension, approach, and solution
- Strong ability to work independently and work under pressure maintaining strong attention to detail
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills

Majors

Computer Science